Mothers Hold Peace Meeting

Working with their own and another Mother For Peace materials, a new community peace organization tentatively called "Monterey Peninsula Mothers For Peace" will hold its third meeting on Wednesday evening, December 9 at 8 p.m., at St. James Church--McGowan House--381 High Street, Monterey.

One of the initial projects of the new group will be the sale of Another Mother For Peace Christmas gift items. These items will be available through individual group members and at the Camera Exchange, 549 Lighthouse Avenue, Pacific Grove, as well as the Three Rings Bookstore in Monterey.

The group also hopes to be able to sponsor Bess Myerson Grant's address on local radio and TV stations and will be sending Christmas mail to "peace prisoners" in cells of conscience.

Another Mother For Peace is a non-profit, non-partisan association headquartered in Beverly Hills, whose goal is to eliminate war as a means of settling disputes between nations, peoples and ideologies.

Monterey Peninsula Mothers for Peace will be active in educating citizens to build peace and eliminate war. A now familiar slogan of Another Mother for Peace is "War is not healthy for children and other living things."

Call Mrs. Nancy Shirley at 375-1610 for further information. Transportation will be provided for the December 9 meeting.

Publisher's Report

Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer."

"Let him step to the music which he hears; however measured or far away." - Henry David Thoreau

How easy it is to criticize the other guy for whatever he does; how simple it is to put the blame for what goes wrong on the other guy because you don't agree with the way he does things. The world is all going to pot because all young people wear long hair and use four letter words, and you can't trust anyone over 30; look at where all of the old guys got us--into three wars in the last three decades and on and on and on...goes the criticism. We don't need any more criticism. We need more constructive thought and more understanding, which makes allowances for the thought in Thoreau's quote above: "Let him step to the music which he hears."

I see many people every day from all walks of life, most of them from Seaside. I am very happy to report that since election day I have noticed a very marked change in the attitudes of a great majority of those with whom I talk. Most are quite aware of what is going on around them. They have hopes for the future. Most do not have any hope that the war in Vietnam will be settled by the present "establishment" but know that it will be settled somehow. They know that the great majority of the people of the world, in spite of the attempts of the war-makers, are truly for peace. This includes the Chinese, Russians, Arabs, Americans and Europeans, as

Call For Bids

The Office of Architecture and Construction, Department of General Services, this week is calling for bids on the following building projects:

In Monterey County, the construction of a one-story Department of Motor Vehicles branch office building on Hilby Avenue between Canyon Del Rey Boulevard and Sutter Street, near the new City Hall, Seaside.

The building, landscaping, lighting, parking and other features are designed as an integral part of the total concept of the Seaside civic center. The simplicity of the building and its low horizontal lines are in keeping with the character and scale of the area and of the community.

Construction will be steel frame and textured precast concrete fascia and wall panels. A 15-foot deep overhang shields the south and west sides of the building from the sun and solar bronze glass minimizes glare.

For the first time in any state motor vehicles facility, floors will be carpeted throughout areas serving the public. This is a test program aimed at determining the safety and environmental benefits to be gained through the use of carpeting in these buildings.

In addition to public service areas and general workspace, there will be offices, a conference room, an employees room, a storage-work room lobby and restrooms and a drivers improvement training and testing classroom.

Site clearing, grading and paving, landscaping and installation of a sprinkler irrigation system and utility services are included in the work. A parking test area and parking for about 116 cars will be provided.

Bids will be opened in Oakland January 5, 1971. The approximate cost of construction is $500,000.

Assessor Elected VP

At the recently concluded annual conference of the State Association of County Assessors of California, Monterey County Assessor Donald P. Stewart was elected to the post of second vice president.

Donald Drew, Assessor of Kings County, was named president of the group, succeeding Philip E. Watson of Los Angeles.

The 68th annual meeting of assessors, held last week in San Diego, was attended by forty-eight county assessors, several assessors-elect and the members of the State Board of Equalization, together with legislative staff personnel and taxpayers' representatives.

SCRAMP Elects 1971 Officers

The Sports Car Racing Association of the Monterey Peninsula (SCRAMP) has announced its officers for the 1971 racing season. They will assume their offices immediately and are as follows:

President - Don Wester (re-elected, serving third term); Vice-President - Robert Sherry; Treasurer - Edward Wagner (re-elected, serving second term); Secretary - Douglas Brantley (re-elected, serving second term).

After the election, President Wester commented that "the negotiations in which we are presently involved strongly indicate that our 1971 racing calendar will be the best in Laguna Seca history, presenting many creative new ideas to the sport of road racing."

Council Meeting to Be Aired

Tonight's Seaside City Council Meeting will be rebroadcast on KRSA-FM tomorrow (Friday) evening at 5:45, according to Harold Gann, producer-narrator of the program.

Also, the annual Alisal Christmas Basketball Tournament, tonight through Saturday evening, will be broadcast this Friday and Saturday evenings at Ten, following San Francisco Warrior Basketball on KRSA-FM (100.7).

Statement by Steve Ross, Councilman

This is an open challenge to the Mayor of Seaside and his supporters of the recall movement. This challenge is spelled out at the end of this statement. But I want to give you the reasons for my decision to make such a challenge.

You often hear public officials or politicians say, "I love my county, I love people," "I am for all the people." Well, you may count me among those who make such statements from time to time. No attempt will be made by me to say whether any other public official means it or not. But, as for me, I really mean it when I make such statements; especially when the people of Seaside are involved. It matters NOT whether they agree with me or me with the person or persons involved.

Change and happiness is not just new buildings, a harmonious Council or Commission, strong commercial districts, a sound tax base, jobs for all, a good storm drainage system, profits for the businesses, long hair or the lack of it, maxi or a mini, squares or hippies (although these things play a major part--to be sure). It is much more.

Man has not yet learned to live harmoniously with his fellow man because he has made the maximum of his individual and collective differences. Seaside is beginning to suffer more from this (assisted of course from the outside).

One writer put it this way: "The world does not provide reinforcement; we provide reinforcement from the world. We find what we expect to find. We experience what we expect to experience. We do not see the world (or Seaside) as it is--but as we are."

The City of Seaside stands out front (or one may say it is marching in the front line) in the parade of 20th century change. There may be those among us, including many of whom are in positions of leadership, who are not ready to accept the rate or degree of change that is coming upon us. We, therefore, spend most of our time resisting change or trying to "turn back the clock" to the so-called "good old days."

It would be nice to have others agree with us most, if not all, of the time, but life does not work out that way. The President of the United States worked hard for the persons he wanted in office. But he settled for what the voters gave him.

The Governor of California worked hard to get re-elected and bring with him a favorable team to control the State Legislature. But he settled for what he got and promised to work with what he had--including his opposition.

We may not be satisfied with how the Board of Supervisors adjusts the supervisorial districts, but we will live with it and do the best we can. It is the right and responsibility of those in office to make decisions by majority vote of those involved. This is the democratic process. I am a strong believer in that process. In each case referred to in this statement--the voters made a decision. And the elected officials are working within that decision.

The voters of Seaside made a decision in April of 1970. I am willing to work within that decision, as I have when they made it on other occasions. It appears that the Mayor and some others are not willing to abide by that decision of the voters. It is also evident that the Mayor does not wish to abide by the majority vote of his fellow Councilmen.

As stated before, I love Seaside. I love the people in it (all of them). The people have been good to me. I like and enjoy serving on the City Council. But I love the people more. Unity and harmony of the people of Seaside is basic, in my opinion, to a happy and prosperous city. The recall--regardless of the outcome, will further divide the people of Seaside. This is the reason for my challenge.

THIS IS AN ALL INCLUSIVE (all or nothing) PROPOSAL.

I propose that all recall efforts be dropped. In return, the mayor and I resign from the Council. All other councilmen would remain. The Mayor's seat would be filled by the Council, from a list of three nominees made by the Mayor and a group of his supporters. My seat would be filled by the Council, from a list of three nominees made by myself and a group of my supporters. Any other vacancies that may occur between now and the next election would be filled by the Council then in office. To continue the path we are traveling would lead to an election every six months, which would lead to the fall of our city.

Haddad's Reply

Mayor Louis N. Haddad, it is reported, responded to Seaside Councilman Stephen E. Ross' proposal that both officials (Haddad & Ross) resign their posts, with a statement that his long-standing suggestion that all five members of the council resign and voluntarily run for office rather than submit to a recall vote still holds.

Haddad said that the city election code states that any elected official who resigns during the process of a recall may not hold office for the year following the election and may not run for the office in the recall election.

Haddad had previously suggested that himself and all four councilmen voluntarily resign and stand for reelection.

Rededication Convocation Is Tomorrow

In a rededication convocation tomorrow (Friday) at 10:30 a.m., in the Monterey Peninsula College gymnasium MPC will present the new buildings on campus to "the community," thus officially marking the end of the five-year building program sparked by a successful bond election in 1965.

Classes will be closed at that hour so that students and faculty may attend and all residents of the college district are cordially invited to participate.

President George J. Faul will deliver the opening remarks and introduce subsequent speakers. These will include Sherman Smith, chairman of the college's governing board; Fred Keeble of the architectural firm of Keeble and Rhoda, which designed the majority of the new buildings; and ASMP Prime Minister Kit Snow, who will "accept" the campus - on behalf of the over 5,800 day and evening students who attend classes there.

Senate Helps Head Start

The Senate recently voted to appropriate enough money so Head Start could hold on to some 62,800 youngsters who may have to be dropped from the popular pre-school program for lack of funds, and pick up 57,800 new ones besides.

The action, which followed a request by Senator Alan Cranston may mean that the number of children now enrolled in the program in California could be raised from 20,300 to 24,550.

Seaside Gets License Fees

The city of Seaside has received $8,122 as its six-month share of the special fees paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses.

The payment was made by the state's department of alcoholic beverage control which allocates 90 percent of all license fee money back to individual cities and counties where it is used to offset the costs of police and fire protection, schools, highways, hospitals and other government services. The remaining 10 percent goes into the state's general fund where it is used for similar purposes.

The most recent payment was for the six-month period ending August 31, 1970.

Monterey County as a whole, including the unincorporated area, received $91,583 for the period.

A package store beer and wine license costs the owner $37, with a yearly renewal fee of $12. A general on-sale tavern license costs $6,560 originally with an annual renewal fee of $580, while a beer and wine only tavern license costs $234, renewable for $84.

According to Geo. W. Ososke, executive vice president of the California Brewers Association, local government throughout the state as a whole received $7,498,045 for the latest period which, coupled with the $6,040,358 received for the period ending February 28, 1970, makes an annual total of $13,538,403. "These fees," Ososke said, "are actually all paid by the consuming public in the form of higher retail prices. It is still another example of one segment of the public, buying a legal product in a way from a legitimate businessman, being forced to pay a greater proportion of the cost of schools, highways, police and other government services than does a consumer of most other goods."

Localites Will Be at Conference

Approximately 150 representatives from throughout California have been appointed to represent the state at the White House Conference on Children, to be held December 13-18 in the nation's capital. All told, 4,000 delegates from all parts of the nation will meet to frame programs for improving health standards, education and general welfare of children through the age of 13. A similar conference devoted to the problems of older youth will be held early in 1971.

Those appointed from Monterey and Santa Cruz County are Lance King of Santa Cruz;

Dr. Frank Barron of Aptos and Miss Margaret Bates of Carmel. The White House Conference on Children, called by President Nixon, is the continuation of a tradition which began in 1909 when the first such conference was held. Since then they have been held every 10 years.

The Conference will bring together professional and community leaders concerned with the problems and the welfare of children and will focus national attention on these problems. The objective is to recommend ways to improve the quality of life for children, especially through actions on the state and local levels. Findings of the conference will be published in a report to the President. These findings will be studied and acted upon at state and local levels in a series of regional conferences next spring.

In California, preparation for the conference is being coordinated by the Governor's Advisory Committee on Children and Youth. The GAC sponsored statewide conferences last year to prepare for the national meeting and assisted in organizing the state delegation.

Island School Is Sinking

A Seventh-day Adventist school is literally "going under." The island of learning, located at the tip-end of Adventists' world system of parochial education, is now barely afloat on Lake Titicaca in Peru.

The Uro Indians have for centuries lived on the lake in reed huts on islands they build themselves. Transportation is engineered on canoe-like boats made of bundles of the same reeds.

In 1962, Adventists built a one-room school of corrugated sheet metal and floated it on empty oil drums near Uro island-clusters. It was the first chance for education Uro children ever had. Now, from Adventist mission headquarters in Lima, comes the word that the famous Floating School of Lake Titicaca will sink—unless help comes fast.

"After eight years of use the oil drums are rusting away," writes missionary Wellesley Muir, youth director for Peru. Visitors to the school are welcome and thanks to wide publicity, tourists visit nearly every day.

The mission itself does not have the $2,000 necessary to make repairs and save the school. "It's just sink-

Pilot Program Has Run Into Opposition

A Planned Programming Budgeting System (PPBS) proposed for California schools has run into strong opposition. For nearly six hours, the State Board of Education at its recent meeting in Sacramento heard about PPBS. What it heard was opposition.

Now being tested in a group of pilot districts throughout the state, PPBS is aimed at pinpointing the cost effectiveness of educational programs. In essence, it calls upon a school district to set educational goals, develop programs to reach the goals, approve the spending needed and measure the results. Programs which fail to achieve desired results would be subject to change or cancellation.

The State Legislature in 1967 created the Advisory Commission on School District Budgeting and Accounting to develop a PPBS model and report to the State Board of Education on its implementation. The advisory commission, which soon will begin a series of public hearings on PPBS, hopes to have the system implemented statewide by July 1, 1973.

But at the recent state board meeting, the opponents to PPBS showed up in droves. Many were teachers or representatives of teacher groups.

Jack Murtha, California Teachers Association liaison committee member of the advisory commission, was one of the critics. He said PPBS is a great amount of work for teachers. He questioned the feasibility of formulating accurate goals for various educational programs and expressed doubts about measurement methods.

"No one can yet show that PPBS has improved the education of a single youngster," he said.

Murtha said teachers fear the system may be used to create unrealistic goals, resulting in the firing of teachers whose students do not attain such goals.

Miles Myers, vice president of the California Federation of Teachers, warned that the cost of implementing the program is more than many districts can afford. He said the proposal may put the public schools in "an accounting strait jacket at the very time many educators say the (educational) program needs drastic reform."

Like Murtha, Myers expressed doubts about types of measuring instruments that will be used to check the results of the program.

One PPBS supporter was Mrs. Jane Legate, board president of the Folsom-Cordova Unified School District. Folsom-Cordova is one of the pilot districts and Mrs. Legate said the program had been very successful in her district.

"We strongly support PPBS and feel it should be implemented throughout the state," she said. "We happen to have a disagreement with some aspects of the implementation of the plan and the program structure which we would like to see modified."

"However, we are not in basic disagreement in terms of the concepts of PPBS or the need. I would like to add, as a board member in a pilot district, I feel this has been the most exciting and challenging activity we have undertaken. It already has been rewarding in a number of ways."

The board has postponed its decision on whether to adopt the initial phase of the PPBS program.

Thai Students Celebrate

The Thai Branch, students and faculty, will celebrate the birthday of His Majesty Phumipon Adunet, the present king of Thailand, tomorrow (Friday), at the picnic grounds of the Defense Language Institute, West Coast Branch.

December 5 is proclaimed a national holiday in Thailand as the people celebrate the birthday of their king. National symbols are lighted and displayed, everywhere "Long Live the King" signs are seen. The whole country takes on a Christmas-like enchantment.

The picnic grounds at the Defense Language Institute, West Coast Branch, Presidio of Monterey will reflect this gaiety. Thai music will set the mood for students and teachers as they sample native dishes and participate in Thai games and sports.

Demonstrations of Thai boxing and other sports will be featured at the afternoon program. Thai costumes and customs will make this a living classroom, a chance for students to encounter the Thai culture in a more realistic way than their regular classroom exercises afford.

Park, Beach Projects Approved

A $13,500,000 acquisition program at seven State Beaches, two State Parks and one State Recreation Area was approved recently by the California Park and Recreation Commission at a regular meeting in San Francisco.

The 12 acquisition projects will be submitted as part of the Department of Parks and Recreation's 1971-72 budget. Development will be included in future budgets.

Funding would be provided from 1964 bond act money and from California's share of Federal Land and Water Conservation funds.

The 10 projects include Jetty State Beach. This will be a purchase of 54 acres of private lands and a long term lease of 60 acres owned by the Moss Landing Harbor District. The area includes 4,000 feet of ocean frontage and 1,200 feet of usable harbor district shoreline.

Seaside Ripples

well as all the other factions involved.

The Pope makes his theme Peace wherever he goes. Every denomination of religion in its regular meetings and conventions makes the main topic of discussion and resolution Peace.

It makes it pretty hard for the "establishment," who would continue the wars, to do so in the face of such strong opposition from the great majority of human beings. But they do continue. Why? They can continue their wars and other activities inimical to peace and freedom because they control the means of communication and the propaganda machine. Every day we are bombarded by people like Edgar Hoover with his scare headlines about some sinister plot or other. It seems that these "plots" become more numerous when it is time for a new appropriation to whatever department is in these headlines. Hoover and his FBI keep on hollering "Red" at everything and everyone.

When men like General Ira Eaker tell an Air War College Graduation Class that "I believe that when some historian of the future does the job on us which Gibbon did on Rome, he will find that the first certain evidence of our decline was our tolerance of 'treason.'" Columnist Sidney J. Harris last week took on Eaker when he answered, "Our nation began in what men like General Eaker would have called 'treason.'" When Patrick Henry stood up in the Virginia House of Burgesses to warn King George the Third that we would not stand for the Stamp Act, the Speaker of the House cried "Treason." It was then that Patrick Henry made his famous reply: "If this be Treason, make the most of it."

Columnist Harris continues: "The established authorities call everything 'treason' that does not suit their purposes or fit their own particular notion of what is proper. A 'traitor' is any dissenter you would like to do away with and cannot find a legal means of shutting up."

"This was clearly understood by President James Madison, one of the framers of our Constitutional liberties. In the Federalist Papers, which formed our country's political structure, Madison warned of the dangers of 'artificial treasons,' by which charge each faction seeks to 'wreak its alternate malignity on the other.'"

"Because, Madison said, it is so easy and so dangerous for one faction to accuse the other of being 'treasonable,' the Constitutional Convention 'with great judgment opposed a barrier to this peculiar danger, by inserting a constitutional definition of the crime, fixing the proof necessary for the conviction of it, and restraining the Congress, even in punishing it, from extending the consequences of guilt beyond the person of its author.'"

"What Gen. Eaker calls our 'tolerance of treason' is precisely the principle we are founded on. Indeed, anyone studying the pre-Revolutionary period must be impressed with the fact that Britain lost her colonies exactly because she called 'treasonable' the attitudes of patriotic men like Henry and Madison who simply wanted a larger measure of justice and representation for the people."

"Nations decline not when they tolerate treason, but when they repress legitimate dissent with what Madison called 'the mighty engine of artificial treason.'"

Men like President Madison, Henry, Abraham Lincoln, Thoreau and many others have kept the fire of Freedom alive for centuries in this great country of ours and the doomsdayers, who are constantly spreading fears, are doomed by their own fears. The Truth somehow gets out and we are saved.

We in Seaside have our own brand of doomsdayers. They are the people like Dolan, who would have us believe that the majority of our Seaside City Councilmen are leading us down the path of whatever brand of "treason" they are peddling at this point. They would have them recalled for whatever spurious reasons they gave in their list of "charges." Don't you believe it. Dolan, Haddad and company are not going to get away with it. The voters of Seaside are going to reject their recall attempts so that the "Voices of the People can be heard." Loud and clear.

Progress Is Topic

Why progress depends on understanding the source of all that is substantial and good will be explained at all Christian Science church services on the Monterey Peninsula this Sunday. Services begin at 11 a.m.

Scriptural readings include these words from Psalms: "Oh Lord, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made the all: the earth is full of thy riches....Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou re-newest the face of the earth."

WHO CARES

By Mel Vercoe

"One American is worth a hundred Vietnamese" was the stated opinion of a Pebble Beach resident in a letter to a Monterey area newspaper editor.

We don't know if he arrived at that particular figure by guess or by research. If done by computer, the likelihood of arriving at a round like 100 would be rather remote. Viewpoint might greatly affect the figure, too. An American who may have lost a relative in Vietnam or who does not study our foreign policy in depth would likely be as far off the scale in one direction as a Vietnamese mother's viewpoint could be off the scale in another direction after seeing her child cut in

Steve Ross Reports

Since this is the Holiday Season, it provides me with a good excuse to thank the many people (the rich, the middle-class and the poor) for the support given the anti-poverty effort on the Monterey Peninsula.

One writer (Pythagoras) put it this way: "Let no sleep fall upon thy eyes till thou hast thrice reviewed the transactions of the past day." There are too many to thank by name. But for the many long hours, days, months and even years of hard work - we thank you.

As this phase of the anti-poverty effort draws near the end, it leaves behind very little tangible evidence of success. The program was not designed to show much in this area. But, in terms of intangible evidence, the program has been very successful. It has given many poor people the confidence in themselves that provides the necessary drive to make it on their own. (There are community-based organizations, like the Young Adults For Action, Operation Shoe Strings, Involved Citizens of Marina, Monterey County Task Force, Inc., Monterey Peninsula Senior Neighbors, Inc. The Involved Club of Seaside, -to name a few.)

During this phase we have set some things in motion which, we hope, will bring about some real tangible results in the next phase or in the years to come. We are asking for health facilities (for Seaside and other areas where needed); we are working for a multi-purpose service center to be located in Seaside. We are working for a multi-purpose training facility (or skill center) to be located near Seaside.

two by American machine gun bullets.

An unbiased observer from another country or another planet probably would see things differently. He might not be influenced by skin color or geographical location of birthplace or greedy political motives. He might think of all human beings as human beings created as equally as possible in a confused unequal world. He might even consider human life as being too remarkable, biologically and being too valuable to its individual owners to allow it to be used or taken away by other human beings for no better reasons than to prove an infantile, idiotic moot point or to gain a political or military position by attrition.

We Americans, leaders of the world is espousing Christian ideas about all men being created equal and being entitled to equal treatment, are by and large, on the average, phony to the core.

We have to be forced by unpopular laws to follow these Christian concepts. We apply these concepts wholly and unreservedly for about one hour per week while being watched in church and we allow this skin-deep philosophy to lend an aura of respectability to policies that mean death, hunger and suffering to millions of people all over the world-people who already have enough problems without the unwanted influence of a Godless foreign power trying to play God.

Who are we to judge how many Americans equal how many Vietnamese or Arabs or Congolese or Eskimos? As an American who has been in the employ of such patriotic agencies as the Atomic Energy Commission, the Department of Justice and the U.S. Marine Corps and who used to be so proud of his America, this writer is no longer sure that he would be proud to jump in the middle of a group of mixed-color foreigners and say, "Hey fellows, I am an American, isn't that something?"

And I resent it. I resent the apathy of our people and the poor quality of our leadership that has made our great nation something less than what it should be. And I resent in this hour of great need in America, people who have nothing better to offer than an opinion that one human being's only life is worth less than another human being's only life.

The Central Mission Trails Heart Association says that in some people high blood pressure can lead to a stroke. Treatment of high blood pressure is effective in preventing such complications, so persons who think their blood pressure is high should check with their doctor.

Brewers Support Reclamation

A spokesman for the California brewing industry has urged that all Californians lend their personal support to the aluminum can and glass bottle reclamation programs which are being conducted throughout the state in an effort to alleviate not only the litter problem, but one of even greater magnitude, that of solid waste disposal.

Noting that virtually every California city and community now has an organized program to collect "trash for cash," Geo. W. Ososke, executive vice president of the California Brewers Assn., said that collection and recycling of paper, aluminum and glass presents an immediate and major solution to the dual problem.

Glass collection centers, he said, are paying one-half cent for each bottle returned, while the aluminum soft drink and beer cans are likewise being redeemed for a similar amount.

Both materials, he indicated, are recycled for further use, thus helping to prevent a build-up of disposal volume.

Bob Wood Reports

It's interesting to note that 44 out of our 58 counties in California asked for an increase in the County tax rate this last year. The total sum needed of these forty-four counties will be approximately $600 million. We are fortunate that the increase asked for in our own Monterey County was one of the smaller requests. Monterey County is in an enviable position of having the 16th lowest county tax rate in the State of California out of the total of 58.

This increase for the support of county governments in 1971, according to tax experts, is caused by inflation and the increased demands of the public for additional services. At the same time, school districts whose demands grow each year, the added funds for the State's welfare program, plus Medi-cal, and the myriad of other requests, coupled with the need to limit unneeded spending wherever possible to protect the taxpayer, is going to make the 1971 session a rough one.

Knowing the immediate need for property tax relief and realizing the Assembly and Senate are now actually controlled by the Democratic Party, I think it is imperative that we forget party differences and that both parties, including the Governor, sit down with a sincere

I think all of us understand that, since all functions of State government revolve around our system of taxation, the slightest re-structuring of the tax system can affect dramatically all areas of legislative concern. This is the reason that I think it is quite obvious, then, that a spirit of compromise is essential.

What It Is And What It Isn't

By Journalism Students of Seaside High School
NO EASY COP OUT
By: Albert Bunuan

Teachers and administrators are not gods; they are only people, quite like you and me. They, too, have their own personal opinions and idiosyncracies, which we as fellow mortals must accept as being very human, for they are as only as humanly perfect as is man himself. Their role suddenly changes, however, the very minute that they get in front of the class and begin to teach.

We as students, who invest what may very well be our future in their judgment, demand the best education that we can possibly get. Certainly then our thoughts must be heard and valued in school policy. What we think is wrong must be expressed and heard in the same token as what we say in class is considered. Of course it would be easy enough for us to simply let things slide, but that seems to amount to nothing more than an easy cop out that we cannot afford. I have noticed that high school kids have a bad habit of shrinking down in face to face confrontations with the authority, and that is something that will have to change if we plan to exploit educational benefits to their utmost opportunities.

So, fellow students, I call on you to tell your teachers, counselors, Mr. Beene, Doctor Solberg or whomever, what is on your mind. Your suggestions will not only bridge a severing tie between us and them, it will also give them ideas on how you would like to be number one. I am sure that they invite your opinions, for they too need to know what is really happening on campus. This appears to be more direct and more effective than the token student-faculty committees that failed in the past. Give it a second thought. This not only dictates the rest of your high school life, but what you may very well become after that last school bell rings.

Too Many Being Built

The California homebuilding industry is painting itself into a corner of overbuilding for a non-existent market, according to Bank of America. "The construction industry in California has not completely accepted the full implications of recent changes in the economy," the bank cautioned in a special report entitled "Focus on California Construction in 1971."

Mortgage credit will be more readily available in California over the next year than at any time since 1965, according to bank economists.

If builders follow their usual pattern of pacing production to the limit of avail-

Wins Cross Country Title

Russel Pate, Headquarters Command, won the 1970 Fort Ord Cross Country Championship recently.

Covering the sometimes rough and always rugged course of slightly over four miles in 19 minutes 32 seconds, Pate was 22 seconds ahead of the second runner.

The Defense Language Institute from the Presidio of Monterey entered a well-balanced, well-conditioned group of runners and although failing to garner any of the first three individual titles, they did win the team championship with 27 points.

Running for the DLI winners were: James Barker, James Nelson, Francis Fernan, Ben Burhese, Terry O'Connor and Bill Pile.

In second place teamwise, Headquarters Command entered in addition to Pate, John Virginski, Bob Carry, Myron Johnson, John Cates and Doug Lenhart. The team scored 47 points.

Bill Schabram, Fort Brigade, was second in the individual chase despite that fact at one point he wandered some 200 yards off the well marked course. Some observers feel that this lapse may have cost him the title.

Pete Sullivan, US Army Hospital, was spotted in the show position for individual competition.

Roger Jelleson, assistant sports director, said, "The turn out was fine, more than thirty barriers answered the starter's gun and Pate ran a good race."

Insulation Save Heat Costs

In the battle to slash living costs, homeowners can hold heating bills to a minimum by insulating their homes against the cold.

The methods, according to Pacific Gas and Electric Company are easy and in many cases cost nothing to initiate.

For example, prevent heat loss by keeping the draperies or venetian blinds closed. PG&E advises. When the fireplace isn't in use, close the damper; otherwise furnace heat escapes up the chimney.

The cost for weather stripping doors and windows can be more than offset by heat savings that result. The investment in ceiling, wall and under-floor insulation pays for itself.

Happiness Is Hole In One

Happiness is...well, it depends on who you are. If you happen to be one of the 11.5 million golfers who play some 150 million rounds of golf each year in the United States, then happiness is breaking a hundred, shooting par, or the ultimate achievement, making a hole-in-one.

Not every golfer can break a hundred.

Far fewer can shoot par. But bagging that hole-in-one is within reach of just about anyone, given a little skill and a large amount of luck.

dends in both winter and summer. And a carpet on the floor helps keep out the cold.

Even the simple expedient of keeping the garage door closed cuts down the cost of heating.

An efficient heating system saves money also. To achieve peak efficiency follow these four steps:

*Clean furnace filters when they become dirty. Most furnace manufacturers recommend that filters be replaced at least twice a year.

*Set the thermostat for a comfortable daytime temperature, then leave it there until bedtime. When you retire, set the thermostat down (60 degrees is about as low as most people care to go). Close off doors and furnace registers to bedrooms occupied by family members who like fresh air.

*Check the gas furnace burner. It should produce a blue flame. If the flame is yellow, this indicates improper combustion and requires burner adjustment.

*Have your furnace system checked each year. This should be done in middle or late summer rather than during the rash of autumn service calls.

PG&E advises against an air-tight barricading of the home. "Remember that your heating unit needs an adequate supply of air--and so do you and your family," says a spokesman.

Heating requirements are affected substantially by a home's location. If the home happens to be in an exposed or wind-swept area, strategically located trees, shrubs and fencing serve as effective wind breaks.

Still another way to cut heating and cooling bills is open to persons who are planning to build a new home. Its design should take advantage of the sun's heat during winter days and, with roof overhangs and other design considerations, have adequate shade in the summer.

Grooving Around The Peninsula with Betty Mann

Hi, there fellow Peninsulans:

Here's hoping that your Thanksgiving holidays were full of rich bounties and many blessings. Now Christmas and New Year's loom before us with numerous bright expectations to encounter.

I've been wondering for years why the Seaside City Council has never appropriated funds to decorate the main streets of Seaside at Christmas time. It looks so bleak and blah in Seaside compared to the beautiful Christmas decorations in Pacific Grove and Monterey. I think that Fremont Boulevard, Del Monte Boulevard and Broadway Avenue could certainly stand a bit of tinsel and cherry greetings at Christmas time. Residents, citizens and taxpayers of Seaside let us complain to the city council and see why our town can't show a bit of the Christmas spirit.

The holiday season's festivities of parties and birthdays started last week with the gala birthday party that Barbara Lester of Seaside gave at El Estero Hall, in Monterey, in honor of her birthday. Over 75 persons attended this well-planned affair and helped Barbara celebrate this happy and lively occasion. Music was played by the Capris band, which furnished together music from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. A huge table of delicious edibles were enjoyed by the guests; the food was prepared by a local catering service. Mr. Polite served as the friendly bartender (smiles).

Other previous news of interest around town were visitors and vacations. Major James ("Beau") Young, stopped by to say hello to his brother, Lt. Sam Young, of Fort Ord and to say hi to yours truly and family. Major Young was enroute from Korea after a year's tour of duty and is now stationed in Chicago, Illinois, where he is assigned to R.O.T.C. duty at a local university in that area. He was stationed at Fort Ord in 1961. After leaving college he played pro football with the Houston Oilers, before entering the service. Beau wishes to say hello to all his friends he missed while here for a day's visit.

Also here on the peninsula for a three-day stopover visit, were: MSGT and Mrs. Leo Miller and son, Leggie, who were enroute to a three-year tour of duty in Okinawa. A.V. and Leo, also extend hello's to all their friends here on the Peninsula. After this tour of duty, they are planning to retire from the Army and reside in Seaside.

Back from the sunny island of Hawaii is Mrs. Delore Hebert who flew over for a week's rest and recuperation in the sun. While speaking of Hawaii the trip tat was planned by the Federal Agency to Hawaii for the Thanksgiving holiday was cancelled, but the agency is planning another tour to Hawaii at the same price ($120-round trip) February or March. I will give you the full details later when I receive the brochure and info from the agency.

Other holiday happenings to come is the Le Grande Coeurs Annual Red and White Ball that is to be held on December 18, at the outrigger on Cannery Row. Mary Ellen, will fill you in on the details at a later date. Next week watch for this column's "Wedding of the Year" story.

Until next week,
Betty

Jehovah's Witnesses Make Plans

The Monterey congregation of Jehovah's witnesses are making preliminary plans to attend a three-day program at the Watsonville Fairgrounds, it was announced recently.

Mr. Henry Nordstrom, Presiding Minister for the group, pointed to the challenge to Christian thinking in the rising tide of materialism. "The object of the program," Nordstrom said, "is to equip every one of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's witnesses in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of the people in our community."

Nordstrom added: "The program is really an extension of and a refresher for the regular training program conducted in all congregations of Jehovah's witnesses. We maintain," he emphasized, "that if a religion is worth believing it is worth putting into practice."

"For that reason the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, sponsor of the three-day Watsonville refresher program, has set as the theme of the assembly, "The Word Of God Is Alive."

Nordstrom continued, "As a high-point of the assembly, Lyle E. Reusch, District Supervisor for Jehovah's witnesses in Central California, will be the key speaker on the program and will deliver his public address "Who Will Conquer The World In The 1970's?" Sunday, December 6, at 3 p.m."

Askey at High School

Joseph V. Askey, the founder and executive director of the Milestone Foundation, Inc., a program designed to work with young people with a physical and/or psychological dependence on drugs, will speak at a general assembly at Seaside High School on December 3 at 8 a.m. His topic will be "From Misuse and Abuse to Addiction of Drugs."

There has been drug abuse as long as there have been drugs, according to Askey. Some people in every society have used and will use drugs in a manner which that society considers detrimental to the user, to the society or both he says.

To get a working definition of the term, we may accept Dr. Jaffe's description of "drug-abuse" as the use, usually by self-administration, of drugs in a manner not approved by the medical and social customs of the society concerned. "What the drug is used for determines abuse. We think it is alright to use barbiturates to induce sleep, but wrong to use them to help cope with the normal tensions of every day living," according to Askey.

This former addict has the ability to communicate with young people in the schools and colleges. The generation gap does not exist for him. He talks without notes and engenders much enthusiasm from young groups whom he speaks with in an adult manner. When he finishes, he is usually circled by a large group of his audience, eager to ask questions.

Joe, an ex-con, ex-alcoholic and ex-drug addict, has often said, "Perhaps I am not yet the man I ought to be, but thank God, I'm not the man I used to be."

Vehicle Code Has Changes

The California Highway Patrol has announced several changes in the Vehicle Code soon to become effective affecting special vehicles.

Motor vehicles weighing less than 1500 pounds, which previously have not been required to have fenders, are losing that exemption with regard to vehicles manufactured and first registered after January 1, 1971. As a result, dune buggies and other specially built cars constructed after the end of this year must have fenders, covers or devices as wide as the tire tread if they are to be used on public streets and highways.

The new amendment also makes clear that it is unlawful to operate any vehicle required to have fenders in which the fenders are not as wide as the tires.

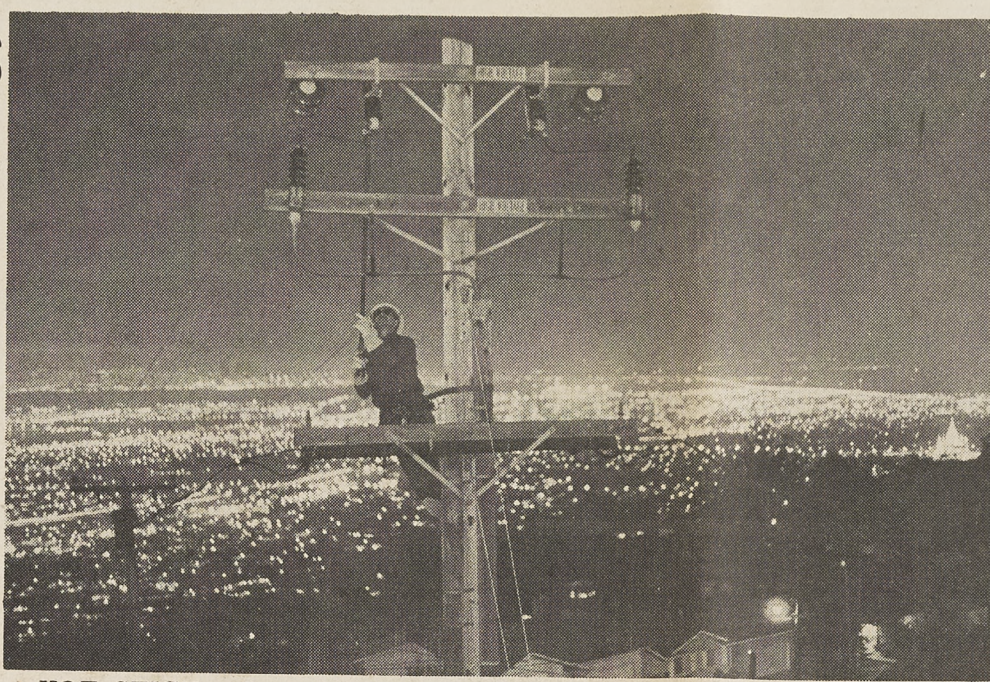

In order to protect motorcyclists temporarily stopped, motorcycles registered and manufactured after January 1, 1971, must be equipped so all taillamps, when turned on, will remain lighted automatically for at least one-quarter hour if the engine stops.

The California Highway Patrol will adopt regulations establishing specifications and standards for safety helmets for use by motorcycle operators and passengers; sale of unapproved helmets is prohibited six months after the effective date of the regulations. However, the law does not mandate the wearing of safety helmets.

Operational noise limits for motorcycles were decreased, effective November 23, from 88 decibels to 82 decibels in speed zones of 25 miles per hour or less and from 90 decibels to 86 decibels in higher speed zones.

The 30 mile per hour speed limit for over-width implementations of husbandry moved or transported as a load on another vehicle was repealed.

HOT STICK - By using tools attached to slender poles, PG&E troubleshooters like Jim Mosser, who's shown working high atop Oakland hill often repair energized or "hot" electric lines. "Hot stick" work avoids power interruptions and has helped PG&E achieve nearly reliability index.

New Fee Schedule Proposed

The State Parks and Recreation Commission at its meeting in San Francisco recently recommended that the new fee schedule proposed by Director William Penn Mott Jr. be adopted for the State Park System.

Mott cited increasing park operation costs as the reason for the change and explained that the general fee increase will help maintain his department's historical position of recovering approximately one-third of its operating expenses from the collection of fees.

"It has always been our policy to let those who use the State Park System pay a greater share of its operation," Mott said, "and as everyone knows, costs are going up."

"Our attendance is going up, too," he added. "Last year we had 44 million visitors to the State Park System. The year before, 36 million. Just to pick up litter in our park units cost $500,000 and it cost another $50,000 to repair damage from vandalism."

The new fee schedule, which will go into effect January 1, 1971, is as follows:

Hookup for trailers and campers--$4 per campsite per night.

Developed Campsites--$3;

Undeveloped Campsites--$1.50 per night. These categories replace the previous Type A, Type B, and Type C campsites.

Reservation Fee--$1.50 per campsite for each period reserved. This is payable when reservations are made for the above types of camping.

Group Camping--for adults (18 and over)--50 cents per person per night, with a group minimum of $10. For youths (17 and under)--25 cents per person per night, with a group minimum of $5.

Horse Camps--$2 per night and 25 cents for each additional horse. The fee at Los Caballos Campground at Cuyamaca Rancho State Park is $3 per night.

Boat Camps--$1.50 per night.

Off-season camping booklets--$10 per booklet. Each booklet contains 10 tickets, with each ticket for one night of camping at designated campgrounds during the off-season.

Additional Motor Vehicle--$1 per vehicle per night if used in the park.

Dogs--50 cents per animal per night.

Persons entering by Private Vehicle--$1 per vehicle; entering by bus --$3 per bus and entering on foot--25 cents per person.

Day Use of Horse Camps--$1 per vehicle with up to 2 horses and 25 cents for each additional horse.

Annual Permit--$10 per calendar year. The permit is good at all parks with day-use facilities.

Boat Facilities (includes use of day-use facilities)--$2 per day per vehicle and boat. Boat Facilities only--$1 per day per boat.

Annual Boat Use Permit--$10 per calendar year. Valid at state operated launching facilities only. Does not include use of day-use facilities.

Angel Island Boat Mooring--$1 per day per space.

Lake Elsinore State Recreation Area--$50 per boat per year, $35 per half year, $25 per quarter year or $3 per day.

Swimming at Bothe-Napa Valley and Grover Hot Springs State Parks Swimming Pools--Free to those who have paid a camping fee; 25 cents if 17 and under or 50 cents if 18 and older if a day-use fee has been paid and 50 cents if 17 and under or $1 if 18 and older if no other fee has been paid.

Tour of Mitchell Caverns State Reserve--25 cents if 6 through 17 or 50 cents if 18 and over.

Wood or Fuel--$1 per bundle or sale unit.

Museum and Historic Units--Free if 17 and under or 25 cents if 18 and older. No charge if the unit is in a park where a day-use or camping fee has already been paid.

Governor's Mansion and Sutters Fort--Free if 17 and under or 50 cents if 18 or older.

Hearst San Simeon State Historic Park--$1.50 if 17 and under or $3 if 18 and over for Tours 1 and 3; and $2 if 17 and under or $4 if 18 and over for Tour 2. The reservation fee for these tours is 35 cents per ticket. For youth group tours, which are offered between October 1 and April 30, the fee is $1.50 per person for Tours 1 and 3 and $2 per person for Tour 2.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CIRCULATE A PETITION FOR RECALL OF LOUIS N. HADDAD FROM THE OFFICE OF MAYOR, CITY OF SEASIDE, CALIFORNIA NOVEMBER 16, 1970

TO: Louis N. Haddad 2050 Lassen Street Seaside, California 93955

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the undersigned Edward Battle and Mrs. Emma D. Costa of the intention to circulate, among the registered and qualified voters of City of Seaside, County of Monterey, State of California, a petition for the signature of said voters, showing their approval that the procedure be taken as provided by law in such cases for the recall and removal of Louis N. Haddad from the position of Mayor in City of Seaside, County of Monterey, State of California, said recall petition to be circulated at a date commencing seven days after the publication of this notice, as required by statute, or as soon thereafter as is practicable.

Notice is hereby further given that the grounds for removal of said Louis N. Haddad, Mayor, City of Seaside from said office are as follows:

Mayor Haddad is either incapable of or refuses to conduct his office in a democratic manner. His conduct in office has made the normal and orderly process of government in Seaside impossible...he refuses to allow anyone to express his views without continual harassment and interference of his personal views. He has shown favoritism in his recognition of speakers before the council. His lack of tact in dealing with those who come before the council borders on vulgarity...

Rather than provide the mature leadership needed in the office of mayor, Haddad instead continually harasses his fellow council members. Haddad cannot adjust to working in a democratic manner after many years of being able to ramrod the council into making decisions against the wishes of the electorate.

He refuses to carry out his duties as mayor by not briefing the other members of the council on matters that affect the future of our city. At the same time working with people outside of the council to carry out his views. He has publicly stated that he will oppose any decision of the city council that is not in concert with his views, even though that decision may have been arrived at in a democratic manner in a duly constituted meeting.

His appointments to city commissions and agencies are always on the basis that such appointees agree with the views of Haddad rather than the views of the city council.

He has consistently flouted the democratic processes in his position of chairman of the council to harass, frustrate and demean those that appear before the council and engages in shouting matches with his council members and others that are appearing before the council.

He has publicly repudiated the recent elections and has done everything in his power to prevent progress in the city by not allowing the newly elected council members to carry out their duties to their constituents.

Because he cannot intimidate or ramrod his views on the majority of the council he repudiates the mandate of the electorate and demands that they, already-elected council members, stand for re-election, simply because he cannot any longer have his dictatorship.

LEGAL NOTICE

ial way. His irresponsible behavior at council meetings is designed to purposely confuse the issues so that there is no progress made at these meetings. Then he childishly points to his colleagues and says that they should be removed from office because there is no progress.

Each council member is elected to carry out the mandates of the citizens and the dictates of his own conscience. It seems unreasonable that if he does this that he should be harassed by the chairman and asked to stand for re-election. Haddad has misused the established rules of order to establish his whims as public policy. In this manner he has cast an unfavorable light on the spirit of fairness and the democratic processes in our city.

He has blatantly ignored the people's petitions to establish the Laguna Grande project for light industry. He disregarded the advice of many library experts on the location of the library in the center of the city and insisted on its location at the city hall site. We hereby set forth this instrument as our honest and true belief that the events herein have and are taking place.

Mrs. Emma D. Costa 1935 Grand View Seaside, Ca 93955 November 16, 1970

ANSWER TO NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CIRCULATE PETITION FOR RECALL OF LOUIS N. HADDAD FROM THE OFFICE OF MAYOR

TO: Edward Battle and Emma Costa

In Seaside, the Mayor is elected by the people and not chosen by the members of the Council as in most cities in California.

When he is elected, the law provided that he presides at meetings, maintains order and decorum, submits names to the Council for appointment to Commissions (which the Council must approve), and provide leadership.

The Council has decided to make its own rules to replace those which have worked so well over the years. Since the April elections the Council has flouted and overruled the will of the people by changing laws to suit their fancy, purposely eliminating authority normally associated with the Mayors office.

As a result:

(1) Seaside has derisively been referred to as a laughing-stock.

(2) A mockery has been made of our laws, as with the "Seaside 19" case.

(3) The people of Seaside have been ashamed and dismayed.

(4) Persons who have served long and faithfully have been systematically removed from Commissions and subjected to harassment. These appointees have always been people with individual capacity to weigh each issue honestly and render an intelligent decision. I have never recommended for appointment to a vital Commission a person who was not genuinely interested in Seaside's future.

(5) Many recommendations of the staff and advisory Commissions have been disregarded.

(6) City employees have had their security threatened by replacing the merit system with "standards of political patronage".

(7) When decisions are rendered at Council meetings which are "cut and dried" without public discussion, and which appear to have been in violation of the Brown Act, the democratic process suffers. The people and the press have no faith in this type of activity.

The election laws of the State of California specifically outline the regulations pertaining to recall elections, making this duplicate action unnecessary and show a complete disregard for its provisions. If the proponents of this action, if the proponents were truly sincere, they could easily volunteer to circulate existing petitions.

It is obvious that there is more concern with vindictiveness and petty politics than with the objectives of giving the people a chance to express their will.

Ballet Will Be at MPC

A pre-Christmas performance of "The Nutcracker," by the Pacific Ballet will be the final - and most elaborate - event of Monterey Peninsula College's Rededication Week.

The six principals and nine soloists of the distinguished San Francisco company will perform Sunday, December 6, 8:30 p.m., at King Hall, Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, with the program co-sponsored by MPC and the school.

All seats must be reserved in advance at the single price of $1.50 for adults and children. Reservations may be made by calling the college's community services office (375-9821, Ext. 335) or the Navy School.

"The Nutcracker," based on the fairy tale by E. T. A. Hoffman and danced to Tchaikovsky's timeless music, was created after the Ivanov original by Alan Howard, the Pacific Ballet's artistic director and principal dancer.

Prima ballerina Sally Streets appears in the role of the Sugarplum Fairy, with Howard dancing opposite her as her cavalier in the grand pas de deux.

For previous Northern California performances of "The Nutcracker," Miss Streets has been cited by critics as "radiant...exhibiting finesse and form at every turn."

Howard was for many years a leading star with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, dancing with ballerinas Alexandra Danilova, Mia Slavenska, Maria Tallchief, Yvette Chauvire, Irina Borowska and Nina Novak. He has also appeared with the New York Ballet and as guest artist with the Metropolitan Opera.

Another standout in the company is Carolyn Goto, who appears in two separate roles - the Snow Princess and Rose in "The Waltz of the Flowers."

Founded by Howard in 1960, Pacific Ballet gave its first

San Francisco season in spring, 1961 and was immediately hailed as "an exciting young company with a pioneering spirit." Since then the company has toured throughout the west as well as maintaining its annual San Francisco spring season and yearly Christmas performances of "The Nutcracker."

Home of the ballet is San Francisco's Academy of Ballet, of which Howard is also director.

From now until Christmas

CARE Has Gift Ideas

"If you're making out your Christmas gift list and realizing that Uncle John just doesn't need another tie and that Aunt Sarah already has enough hankies, CARE might have just the answer for you," according to Miss Molly Farmin, Regional Director of CARE.

Among Miss Farmin's suggestions for remembering Uncle John or Aunt Sarah were 25 pounds of food, a kit containing school supplies, a water pump. Or perhaps, a welding machine, a well digging rig or a mobile TB unit.

"Through CARE's Holiday Gift Plan you can help send any of the above to needy people overseas," Miss Farmin explained. "And it solves your gift problems because you sent the aid in the name of those difficult-to-buy-for people on your Christmas list."

"Nothing could be simpler. You send a check to CARE asking that aid be sent to needy families abroad. Enclose also the names and addresses of those you wish to remember in this manner and CARE, in turn, will send attractive gift announcement cards back to you for your signature and mailing. The minimum contribution per name is one dollar and is tax deductible," Miss Farmin concluded.

Contributions to the Holiday Gift plan may be sent to CARE 444 Market Street, San Francisco, 94111.
